

Email to parents re Boris Johnsons announcement today

Sunday 10th May 2020

Dear Parents and Carers,

Following today's announcement from Boris Johnson, we feel it is important to clarify that there are no changes to school in the near future. While there was speculation on a return date, it is really important that we don't build children's hopes up about returning soon as we don't want to set them up for disappointment if school is not safe to open. We await further detail tomorrow on any advice for planning for schools opening to some year groups, possibly later in the summer, which will only happen if safety criteria is met.

In the meantime, school remains open to vulnerable and key worker children only. Home learning will continue.

We will communicate further when we have more information.
