

Steps to SPAG success...	When should you use an or a?	What is the difference between a question, a statement, a command or an exclamation?	How can we change a passive sentence to active? Or vice versa?
What affect do the suffixes ful or less have to the word class?	What are connectives? What do different connectives do	What is the difference between past, present or future tense? How can we change the tense of words?	What is an adverb and how can you spot one?
What is a superlative and how can you spot one?	Was/were is/are When do you use these?	What is a subordinate clause? How can you spot one?	When should capital letters be used?
What is an adjective? How can you spot one?	What is a modal verb?	What sort of punctuation do you use to show where a sentence ends? What is the difference between them?	What is an apostrophe? When should it be used?
What is a comma? When should it be used? How can you tell?	What are inverted commas? When should they be used?	What are the rules for punctuating direct speech?	When should brackets, hyphens or pairs of commas be used?
What is a colon and when should it be used?	What is a semi-colon and when should it be used?	What is a synonym?	What is a contraction?
What is a verb?	What is a noun?	Can you change a question into a statement or a statement into a question?	What is a homograph? How many different homographs do you know?
What is a proper noun?	What is a preposition?	What is an antonym?	What is a main clause and how can you spot one?
What is a homophone? How many different homophones do you know?	What are prefixes? How many different ones do you know? What are their jobs?	How can you change direct speech into reported speech?	How can you change reported speech into direct speech?
What is a suffix? How many different suffixes do you know? What is their effect?	What is the difference between a phrase and a clause?	When do you add s or es to make a word a plural?	 You are a SPAG superstar!!!